

Felton Street to Potrero Road

Highlights

- Easy, pretty route with quick access for Newbury Park residents
- The Los Robles section is really fun on a mountain bike
- Makes a good, short add-on to a longer route in Pt. Mugu State Park and Rancho Sierra Vista/Satwiwa
- One of the segments of the 2022 Conejo Open Space Challenge (<https://cosf.org/challenge>)

Description

This out-and-back route can be started at either end. The trail is always climbing or descending but generally not steep except for a couple of very short spots, one of which is shown in the photos.

Key Statistics

Popularity: There's a good chance of encountering other visitors on the trail.

Parking: Free; on Felton Street just off of Lynn Rd., or the dirt lot on Potrero Rd.

Distance: 2.9 miles out-and-back

Cumulative Climbing and Descent: About 700' total.

Tread Surface: Packed dirt singletrack trail.

Hazards: Possibility of small ruts and a slippery thin layer of dust and sand. There are a couple of short rocky challenges for mountain bikers.

Facilities: None

Connections: Los Robles Trail to the east and Rosewood Trail; Wendy Connector to Ranch Sierra Vista/Satwiwa trails and Point Mugu State Park.

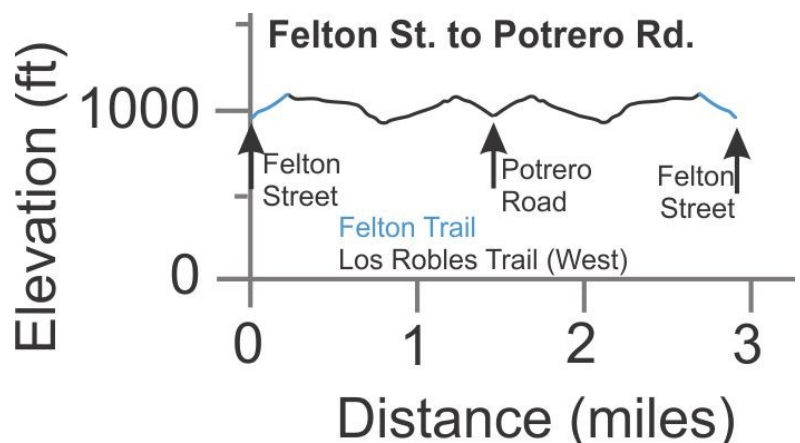

Driving Directions to the Felton St. trailhead: From the 101 Freeway in Thousand Oaks, take the Lynn Road exit and turn south/west onto Lynn Road. Drive 3.2 miles to the stop light on Felton Street where you turn left. The trailhead is 0.1 miles up in the cul-de-sac.

Map: <https://bit.ly/3slavRF>

Driving Directions to the Potrero Rd. trailhead: From the 101 Freeway in Thousand Oaks, exit at Wendy Drive and turn south (towards the ocean). Drive 3 miles to Potrero Road and turn left. The parking is 0.5 miles up Potrero, on the left.

Map: <http://tinyurl.com/63mtrfu>

Elevation Profile, out and back. Blue is Felton Trail, part of the 2022 Conejo Open Space Challenge.

The green highlight shows the segment that is part of the 2022 Conejo Open Space Challenge

Map courtesy of <https://www.venturacountytrails.org>

Updated February 6, 2022

Photos

